About Us

Footnotes Tap Ensemble, a non-profit professional tap company, was founded by Robin Vail and Mimi Benjamin in 2002. The Ensemble's mission is to promote, educate and perform this truly unique American dance art through annual ensemble concerts, community concerts and tap workshops.

Footnotes brings varied and highly-acclaimed repertoire, and affordable workshops to the community. Footnotes' commissioned works include pieces from Michelle Dorrance, Josh Hilberman, Robert Perera, Dorothy Wasserman, Lane Alexander and Gene Medler, Director of the highly acclaimed North Carolina Youth Tap Ensemble.

Book Us

Schedule us for your event, community concert or a tap workshop at info@footnotestapensemble.org.

Footnotes is available to perform for special occasions, at long-term care facilities or hospitals. The Ensemble also is available to come to your studio to teach classic tap routines by our greatest choreographers including Bill Bojangles Robinson, Eddie Brown, Buster Brown, Leon Collins, Leonard Reed and others, as well as contemporary choreography.

See Us Dance!

Footnotes performs mostly in the Triangle region of North Carolina and occasionally out of state. Many of our festival and community shows are free, and we produce an annual full-length concert. Check out our upcoming performances on our website at www.footnotestapensemble.org/events.php.

We are currently scheduling for our 2013 season. If you are interested in booking Footnotes for a performance and/or workshop, please contact us!
