Nine Ladies Tapping & a Guy!

Footnotes celebrated the first day of fall with our Live Rhythms concert on Sept. 22nd at Chapel Hill High School. This was our first concert performed with all live music, which was challenging on many levels but a whole lot of fun. I think the entire Ensemble would agree that there is just nothing like performing to live music. Footnotes premiered some new works: "Bop 'til You Drop" by Erin O'Reilly, "Suite for Piano and Flute" by Mimi Benjamin and "Do Your Thing" by Dorothy Wasserman. We were accompanied by jazz trio Ed Paolantonio (piano), Robbey Link (bass), Matt Mc Caughan (drums) and Rodney Marsh (flute). We were also very fortunate to be accompanied vocally by Alexis' sister Erica Dunkle for "Do Your Thing," which took this new piece to a whole new level. What a voice... Thank you Erica!
